NEXT.cc GALLERY IS NOW OPEN (!)

We are excited to see work of students from diverse schools as our online community grows. Student work is inevitably what we want to build as by doing so we most deeply develop individual voices for change. Click on the blinking camera icons to lead directly to student work specific to each journey activity or visit the NEXT gallery directly. The gallery submission form is found under about and on the NEXT gallery main page.

Any comments and suggestions let us hear. May your journey be fulfilling!
